

Honors 11th/12th Grade American Literature Summer Reading Requirements- 2022-2023 School Year
Class Code: nwud6nn

Summer reading will be due at different times throughout the summer and at the beginning of the year. Pay careful attention to the instructions to ensure you are meeting the requirements as well as the due dates.

Part 1: Read The Chosen by Chaim Potok, a bildungsroman or coming of age narrative of two young Jewish boys.

- 1) Personal Response: Which character provokes the most thought, interest and relates to you most? Make sure to address and explain all underlined aspects above. Your response should be in one paragraph consisting of 7-8 sentences. Your response should be typed out in MLA format.
- 2) The themes in The Chosen include: father-son relationships and the conflict between religious and secular way of life. Discuss both themes from above and use examples from the novel to show how they were developed. Your response should be two paragraphs consisting of 7-8 sentences each. Your response should be typed out in MLA format.
- 3) Respond to the following short essay prompt:
'If Art does not enlarge men's sympathies, it does nothing morally' (George Eliot).
How does The Chosen work to enlarge our sympathies? What might it achieve morally, as a result? Respond to these questions and include at least two references to the text to support your response. Provide in text citations with the page number in parenthesis for your references. Your response should be two well developed paragraphs consisting of 7-8 sentences each. Your response should be typed out in MLA format.

*Please type all three responses on an on-going document. Label each response with the appropriate question number. This should be typed with your name at the top of the paper. These responses must be printed prior to coming to class the first day.

- 4) Make a google slides presentation and dedicate a slide to each of the following characters:
-Reuven Malter -Danny Saunders
-David Malter -Levi Saunders
-Reb Isaac Saunders -Tony Savo

Within each slide you should discuss:

- Who the character is (name, age, relationships)
- Physical appearance and personality traits
- Conflict the author put the character in- any resolutions?
- Role in the novel (literally are they a protagonist? Also metaphorically- do they stand for something bigger?)
- What can you learn from this character?

Your slides MUST be done on google slides. Make your slides visually appealing, neat and organized. Please be prepared to share them with me on google classroom on the first day of class.

- 5) Additionally, you will have a test over The Chosen sometime between the 1st and 2nd week of school.
Part 2 on the back of this paper

Part 2: World News

Throughout the summer you will read and respond to 6 different articles on 6 different topics. They must all be from a credible news source (NewsEla, Google News, Macomb Daily, Washington Post, Apple News, Times, USA Today or any credible news source). You must do two articles a month (2 in June, 2 in July, 2 in August). You will write two paragraphs per article. Each paragraph should be between 6-8 sentences. One paragraph should provide a summary of the article including title, author and source. The next paragraph should provide your personal commentary on the article. What are your thoughts? What did you find interesting? What was the author's tone/attitude/ stance? What is the author trying to get the audience to think? When completing these, you will attach the link from the news article to the google classroom assignment. If the article is from an actual newspaper, you will need to take pictures of the article and newspaper information. These will need to be added to the google classroom by the last day of each month (aside from the month of August) These are due on the following dates*

Article 1 and 2: Due June 30th by 11 pm

Article 3 and 4: Due July 31st by 11 pm

Article 5 and 6: Due August 22nd by 11 pm

If you have any questions throughout the summer, please email ajagitsch@parkwaychristian.org

Have a wonderful summer!!